FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Syniverse Appoints Andrew Davies as Chief Financial and Administrative Officer

Global Telecom & Enterprise Veteran to Help Syniverse
Grow as a Software and Services Leader

TAMPA, Fla., June 10, 2020– Syniverse, the world's most connected company, announced today it has appointed Andrew Davies as chief financial and administrative officer (CFAO). Davies brings a broad level of expertise that will lead and improve Syniverse's financial and administrative processes. He will report to Syniverse CEO and president Dean Douglas and assume his role in July 2020.

Davies has more than 30 years of leadership experience working with major global brands in the telecommunications and enterprise sectors. He replaces Simeon Irvine, who served as interim chief financial officer (CFO) and who will continue with Syniverse as its chief transformation officer.

Davies most recently served Sprint as its CFO from July 2018 until the closing of its merger with T-Mobile USA. He was responsible for day-to-day financial strategy and operations, including accounting and reporting, financial planning and analysis, treasury, tax, investor relations, risk management, auditing, and mergers and acquisitions. He also jointly led Sprint's transformation program, which included deployment of leading-edge capabilities in analytics and digitalization technologies. During his time at Sprint, Davies also provided significant input into the integration and business planning of the "New T-Mobile" and its regulatory advocacy process.

Prior to joining Sprint, Davies served as Group CFO for Amsterdam-based VEON, where he led a global team and was credited as being instrumental in driving its transformation via a series of profound corporate finance transactions and significant operational transformation activities, both of which culminated in the resumption of a meaningful dividend program. Davies also played a key role in the formation of Wind Tre, the leading cellular communications business in Italy, which was a joint venture between VEON and CK Hutchison.

Before joining VEON, Davies spent more than a decade with Vodafone Group holding various financial leadership positions in Japan, Turkey, and India, in addition to his appointment as CFO of Verizon Wireless in the U.S. He started his career with KPMG in Cardiff, Wales, before serving in elevated senior finance roles with GE, Honeywell, and the Caudwell Group in both the U.K. and the U.S.

Davies graduated with an honors degree in mathematics from London's Imperial College of Science, Technology and Medicine, is an Associate of the Royal College of Science, and is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.
